

Monday, 11th December 2017

On Monday the students from Malta, Italy and Catalonia were warmly welcomed at the train station in Güstrow. Together with their host family and our host students we went home to eat something. But because of the long journey we were tired and went to bed soon.

